

Curriculum vitae

Robert L. Erickson, MD

Originally from: Chicago, Illinois

Married: Wife, Rita, one child, Matthew

Residence: Montclair, New Jersey

Education: Chicago Public Schools

College: DePauw University, Greencastle, Indiana B.A. (Psychology) 1958

Military: U.S. Naval Officer's Candidate School 1959 Commissioned 1 May 1959

Duties: Aerial Navigator 1959-1961, U.S. Navy Recruiting Officer, Washington, D.C. 1961-1963

Graduate School in Psychology George Washington University 1961-1963

Medical School: George Washington School of Medicine 1963-1967 M.D. (with distinction)
1967

Graduate medical training: Cornell-Cooperating Hospitals (Bellevue, Memorial Sloan-Kettering, and The New York Hospitals, New York City) Internship 1967-68, Internal Medical Residency 1968-1971. Board certified in Internal Medicine 1971

Fellowship in Gastroenterology The New York Hospital 1971-1972

Board Certified in Gastroenterology 1973

Practice of Gastroenterology Montclair and Glen Ridge, New Jersey 1972-2001

Fellow, American College of Gastroenterology, American Society for Gastrointestinal Endoscopy, Former Assistant Clinical Professor of Medicine, UMDNJ

Voluntary Chief of Medicine, Mountainside Hospital, 1993-94, Director, Division of Gastroenterology 1994-2001.

President: Orange Mountain Medical Society (now defunct), and Associated Physicians of Montclair and Vicinity

Interests: Travel, Golf, Skiing, Wine